ABSTRACT

Petr states that in obedience to the notice issued from this Dy Comrs office she with her witnesses appeared before the 2nd General Asstt Commissioner on the 7th March 1902 at Madhavi Camp. on Connection with the disposal of Saindi of their village & that the

MGCPB—4,000—31-1-02

the records connected with the Sinde matter of the village were examined and their right to the Free Tax was recognized.

That according to the Accounts Notification of 1897-98. in which year the System of Free Tax was settled, that if the Sinde Revenue realized for the year exceeds the Shop-rent, the excess amount may be taken as Free Tax amount;

That in the same year Rs 240, Shop-rent + Rs 500 (Free Tax) have been realized. That in the matter of the Free Tax. the General Asstt Commr has directed that he will make a report to Govt + then issue orders to petrs.

That the Govt on the appeal of Venkatapathi Jahangir dar-Advocate Rajhavachari has framed orders in the matter of the Free Tax.

It therefore prays that their right the Free Tax may be recognised + the excess amount paid to them
